MONTIGO SPA LAUNCHES ITS SECOND BRANCH IN MONTIGO RESORTS, SEMINYAK PROVIDING AN URBAN HIDEOUT FOR SPA TREATMENTS

Bali, 8 September 2016 – Officially launched this week, the second Montigo Spa in Indonesia opened its door in Montigo Resorts, Seminyak, located along the famed Jalan Petitinget where popular upscale restaurants, beach clubs and fashionable boutiques. The first flagship Montigo Spa opened in Batam at Montigo Resorts, Nongsa in June, 2012.

Spa urbanites or families with children looking for rest and relaxation after a busy day of shopping or sightseeing can seek treatment at the resort's spa, unique with its high-touch low tech approach of rituals and therapies which include body massages, facials, hot-stone massages and other delights intended to invigorate the body and soul and to provide a holistic wellness experience.

For ultimate pampering, the benefits of spa programmes may be further enhanced with a stay in one of the resort's spa suites, slated to be opened by early 2017, a specially designed cocoon with rain shower and aromatherapy scents.

The new spa boasts nine treatment rooms, a foot reflexology lounge, a pre- and post-relaxation lobby area, manicure, pedicure and salon services – all designed to evoke a space of tranquillity and tropical idyll in the heart of a bustling district.

Elsewhere, the 108 expansive rooms and suites resort features a restaurant serving gastronomic delicacies, a bar to concoct refreshing beverages, a kids club for children and a 30-metre swimming pool.

Ms Helena Ketaren, Resident Manager of Montigo Resorts, Seminyak said: “Building upon the success of Montigo Spa in Montigo Resorts, Nongsa, we are excited to be bringing Montigo Spa to Montigo Resorts to Bali. With its tropical idyllic ambience, married to exceptional service and facilities, Montigo Spa offers a unique proposition for couples and families wishing to experience five-star service in a location. With two Montigo Spas in Indonesia, the brand will continue to extend its footprint throughout Asia providing an authentic spa journey”.
